

Fool's Gold (2002)

In a moving portrait, Fool's Gold peels away the layers of affluent colour-co-ordinated shops, cafes and big cars in Dahlonega, Georgia, USA, to reveal a community, where people like Myra and Thomas, live out life untouched by the prosperity of tourism, who struggle with poverty but share the little they have with others.

To watch this film and/or download it it as an MP4 file go here: <http://vimeo.com/92523649>

password: foolsgoldjd1